MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AND EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

INVITATION TO THE SLOVENIAN PREMIERE OF THE FILM “WHERE HAVE YOU BEEN”

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the Srebrenica genocide. Survivors in Bosnia and Herzegovina are still mourning their missing loved ones. Thousands of coffee cups remain empty each morning.

How does one survive such a loss, fill the void, heal the trauma?

What does “never again” mean in a world where atrocities often remain unpunished?

Bosnian-American artist Aida Šehović explores these questions in her film Where Have You Been (Što te nema), a unique artistic memorial to the victims of the genocide in Srebrenica.

The Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs cordially invites you to the Slovenian premiere of the film on Monday, 5 May 2025, at 16:30 at Kinodvor (Kolodvorska 11, Ljubljana).

The audience will be addressed by Tanja Fajon, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign and European Affairs. After the screening, you are invited to join a discussion with author Aida Šehović and executive producer Dženeta Karabegović, moderated by Mirjam Milharčič Hladnik.

The screening of the film Where Have You Been also serves as an introduction to the international conference Responsibility to Protect in Theory and Practice, which will take place on 6 and 7 May 2025 at the Faculty of Law in Ljubljana.
